$300,000 CENTRE:

SCHOOL HEAD SEEKS AID OF PUBLIC

Altona High principal, Mr. F. McDonald, is looking to Altona people for support in his school's bid for a $300,000 amenities centre.

He wants interested people to write to him, adding evidence that there is strong need in Altona for the gymnasium/theatre/canteen complex.

In a statement to the Star this week, Mr. McDonald said the project would be a direct attack on the school's two biggest problems — lack of facilities and staff.

Community use

It would be available for use by the community during the evenings and at weekends when it was not being used by the school, he said.

"Because of the high cost it was desirable that these buildings should not be idle during out of school hours so a questionnaire had been sent to many industries, businesses, clubs and organisations in Altona asking for information on the use of such buildings."

Mr. McDonald said if there was strong community support a good case could be presented to Altona Council asking council support for a claim for Government aid through the Department of Youth, Sport and Recreation.

gramme of the school which involves all aspects of child growth, intellectual, physical, social, emotional, aesthetic and moral, towards personal maturity and good citizenship.

"Good facilities attract and hold staff, because they contribute to job satisfaction which for a teacher is a feeling that he is successfully contributing towards the development of the whole child."

"Lack of facilities cause frustration and teachers move on to other places. There is no doubt that the school needs these buildings," he said.

To obtain a Government subsidy for the project the school needs to raise about $100,000. To date $18,000 has been raised.

Editor's note: Last week the Star carried a report which named Altona North High School as the site for a $300,000 centre. The report should have referred to Altona High school.

Carols night at Grant Reserve

A Carols-by-Candlelight evening will be held on the Grant reserve behind the Civic offices on Sunday starting 8.30 p.m.

The Altona Council of Churches has made Grant Reserve the venue for their carols this year so that carollers this year can use the civic hall in case of rain.

In previous years the carols night was held on Logan Reserve.

Carol music will be provided by the Altona City band and the choir of St. Paul's College, Altona North. It will be led by Father Cahill.

The mayor of Altona, Cr. Ray Richards, will attend the annual event.

Programmes will be made available from Altona Council and candles will be on sale at the reserve.

The lucky dog!

"Now, if ever I saw a poodle in need of a haircut, you're one," says lovely Sharon Cassidy, 16 of Altona who spent the day at Altona beach last week. Boy, what a lucky poodle!

'Wakey, wakey you've won a Torana'

Imagine their surprise. Young Greeney Street couple, Bill and Mardi Johnston, had just gone to bed last Friday night when two justices of the peace knocked on their door.

It was after 11 p.m. and Altona councillors Les Crofts and Pat Lynch were calling to tell them they had won a Torana car in the Altona Hospital ladies' auxiliary raffle.

At first they couldn't believe it but they agreed to get dressed and return with councillors Crofts and Lynch to the hospital dinner dance at Koorngal golf club where Matron had drawn the winning ticket.

Bill, who works as a butcher at Pier Street Meats, said he had borrowed $5 from the till to buy the ticket from Altona resident, Mrs. Margaret Sause.

"First the lady approached me in the fish and chip shop asking me if I wanted to buy a ticket and later in the day she caught me again in the butcher's shop," he told the 110 people who attended the dinner dance.

The new car will come in handy for the Johnstons, who moved to Altona after their marriage seven months ago. Bill said he would probably sell his 1966 Fairmont.

The car raffle raised $1946 for the hospital and earlier in the evening ladies' auxiliary president, Mrs. June Crofts presented a cheque for the amount to hospital president, Mr. Bob Stringer.

Members of the ladies' auxiliary put up a sterling effort to sell 700 tickets at $5 each, Mr. Stringer said.

The price of the tickets meant that the auxiliary members had to 'push' to sell each one.

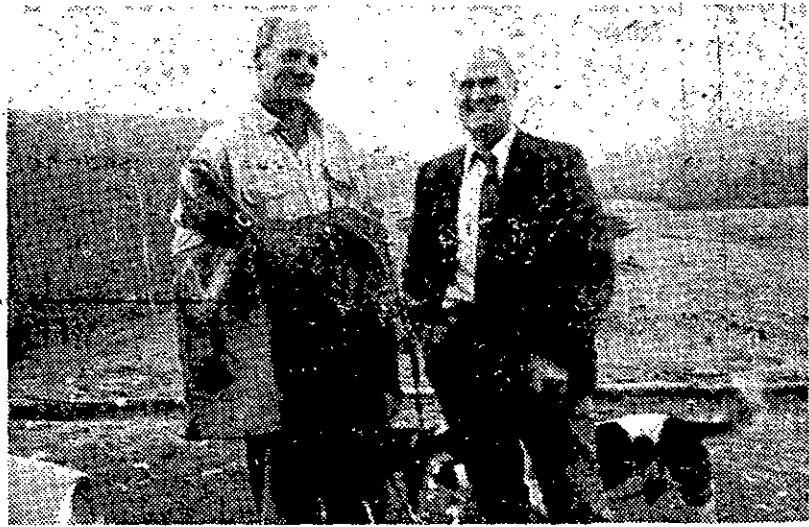

The amount raised by the raffle was double that raised last year when the ladies raffled a Christmas hamper. It was the first time the ladies' auxiliary had raffled a car.

Hello Girls.

Time is getting short now girls. Christmas, break-ups. Christmas giving, Christmas holidays. It is just rush, rush, rush.

We think we can help you overcome a lot of your time-consuming shopping.

Let's see, we can give you a wide selection in new make-up and accessories for those party evenings.

Gifts! If you haven't been in and seen the wide scope of our gifts, you haven't started shopping.

Cameras, watches, bracelets, cuff links, bookends, ornaments, toys, novelties, homypeds. Now there is a wide variety in any of these to mention a few.

No, and I haven't even mentioned toiletries for either sex.

Have an inspection of the shower cabinet, or in the dressing table. What perfume is she nearly out of, what make-up brand and color is written on that near empty bottle?

We have a marvellous idea —

We have attractive empty gift giving boxes — you can get daughter, or friend a few of her favorites — perfume & brooch, or latest colors in eye shadow, nail enamel and lipstick — maybe the range in face creams that she feels she cannot afford herself.

Show a little thought, person to person, it means so much.

We are only too pleased to help, and we love gift wrapping your choice. By the way — Yes, we have Revlons new hair colorings in. So simple to use.

ALTONA DOG CLUB PLANS AHEAD

Members of the Altona Civic Dog Obedience Club want to build a permanent club house in Altona. They plan to start a building fund early next year.

During a recent trip to New South Wales, Altona councillor Les Crofts (right), and his wife, June, called in on former Altona councillor, Mr. Wally Cresser (left), who now has a farm near Eden in New South Wales. Councillors Cresser and Crofts didn't always agree at council but they looked more than happy to see each other and talk over old times when this picture was taken.

The club started as a branch of the Hobsons Bay Obedience Dog Club in 1968 but because of administrative difficulties broke away in 1971.

Already the club has 436 members and $2000 worth of assets and was affiliated with the Kennel Control Council last year.

The club plans to hold trials in Altona next year on May 13 and October 13. Some of Victoria's best interstate obedience dogs will compete and Altona dog enthusiasts are hopeful that the trials will also attract interstate entries.

Committee members of the club are as follows:

President, Mr. G. Day; Vice-Presidents, Mr. C. Lowery, Mr. D. Murphy; Secretary, Mr. F. Kays; Treasurer, Miss H. Bolger; Ass. Secretary, Mrs. W. Powell.

Committee

Mr. S. Ashman, Mrs. M. Ashman, Mr. J. Carter, Mr. S. Bolger, Mrs. M. Lowery, Mr. M. Quinlan, Mrs. P. Murphy, Mr. D. Hopkins.

Chief instructor, Mr. C. Lowery; Property steward, Mr. S. Bolger; Social secretary, Mrs. Deland; publicity officer, Miss L. Holden.

By the way ..

premises have been instructed to remedy the situation by Altona's senior health inspector Joe Mifsud.

YOUTH STOLE CAR 'JUST FOR STIR'

"Just for a stir" was the reason given by a 19-year-old Altona man when asked by police why he stole a car, Footscray Court was told last Thursday.

Joseph Zacco, of Sixth Avenue, Altona North, pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing a Holden Torana worth $2300 from Spicer Motors, Buckley Street, Footscray, last July 1.

He pleaded guilty also to a charge of unlicensed driving, in Buckley Street, on July 1.

Police withdrew a charge of breaking and entering the office of Spicer Motors on the same date.

Mr. Miller, SM, fined Zacco $100, in default 20 days imprisonment for larceny of a car and $100 for unlicensed driving.

At the request of Zacco's counsel, Mr. H. A. Aizen, of Melbourne, Mr. Miller allowed eight weeks for the fines to be paid.

Constable B. Ryan gave evidence he went to Zacco's home about 1.45 a.m. on July 6, and asked him to go to Footscray police station.

Zacco said, "I suppose it's about that car yard job in Footscray," Const. Ryan said.

He said it was and cautioned him anything he said could be used in evidence.

At the police station, Zacco said he stole the car the previous Saturday night and on the night before he was arrested, he loaned it to a friend in return for the friend's motor cycle.

'ON MY OWN'

Asked if the friend was with him when he stole the car, Zacco said, "no, I was on my own," Const. Ryan said.

To a question as to why he stole it, Zacco replied, "I was just walking past and saw the car and decided to take it. Just for a stir."

Between stealing it and being arrested he and the friend loaned it to had driven it to Eden, NSW and back.

To Mr. Aizen, Const. Ryan said the friend had already been dealt with in court, had admitted a number of prior convictions for crimes of dishonesty and been fined $100.

Police alleged prior convictions for crimes of dishonesty and stealing and illegal use of a car. They added there were also "a couple of Children's Court matters".

TREAT SAME

Mr. Aizen submitted both people involved in the use of the car should be treated the same.

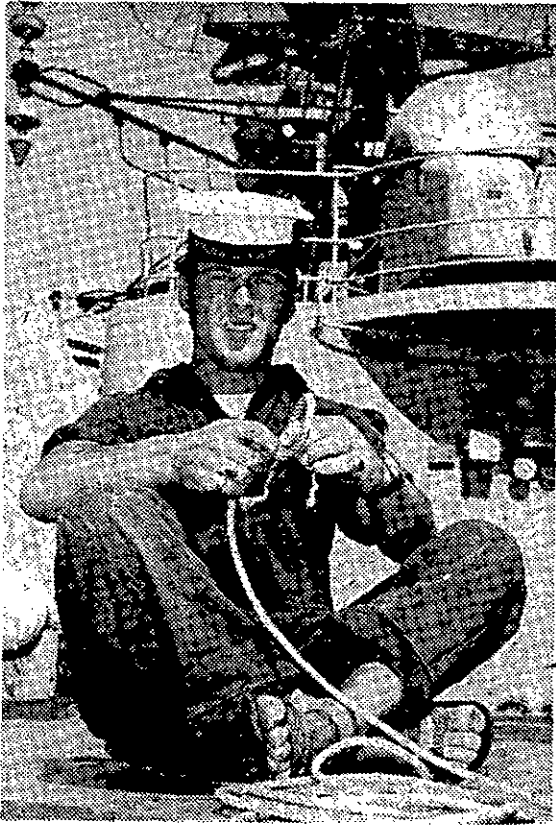

He said Zacco had a poor education. He went to school only to grade six level and had not had the capacity to learn. He could not read at all.

Zacco was, "perhaps more stupid than anything else," Mr. Aizen said.

In addition to the fines, Mr. Miller ordered Zacco to pay $10 costs for a witness who attended but was not called.

Unlicensed driver escapes charge—but fined $550

Police withdrew a charge of unlicensed driving against a man in Williamstown Court — even though he pleaded guilty to the charge.

The man was fined a total of $550 and disqualified from holding a licence for two years on other charges.

John Michael Derich, of Blackshaws Road, North Altona, faced the court on numerous charges relating to traffic offences including refusing to undergo a preliminary breath test, giving a false name and address, driving without a licence and driving under the influence.

The offences were alleged to have taken place at North Altona on October 14.

Police prosecutor Sergeant Smith, of Altona, withdrew the unlicensed driving and false name and address charges because there was no appearance in court by another policeman to give evidence in relation to the charges.

Mr. K. Thompson, SM, was told that when Derich was apprehended he appeared to be grossly affected by alcohol, although he said he had only drunk two beers for the day.

He allegedly said he did not know when he had had his last drink and said he had not had anything to eat for some days.

Police said Derich refused to blow into a "puff bag" twice and later refused to sign a record of interview at Altona police station.

Mr. Thompson fined him $500 for driving under the influence, $50 for failing to undergo a preliminary breath test and disqualified him from holding a licence for two years.

Ratepayer in prosecution support

An Altona ratepayer favors the idea of prosecuting ratepayers who do not connect to available sewerage. Mr. H. V. Jeavons of Queen Street, Altona writes:

I refer to the article in last week's Altona Star on Cr. Weaver's failure to obtain a second to prosecute those who fail to connect to available sewerage.

It is quite evident that the council is more interested in influencing ratepayers and gaining votes than in the ultimate good of Altona.

Large areas of Altona are still awaiting sewerage and while there are a considerable number of ratepayers who have sewerage available but will not connect the board cannot be expected to spend more money on unrewarding projects.

If By-Law 44 is a good law then enforce it. If it is a bad law, then wipe it out, but stop this vote catching PR manoeuvring.

Extra train

Following a reshuffle by the Victorian Railways Department Altona now has an extra train in the morning, Cr. Alan Shaw told the recent meeting of Altona Council.

The extra train leaves Altona for the City at 8.15 a.m.

"Meanwhile in the deprived east—and I will call them that because I don't know where there's a beach clean service like ours there—they have a train every 10 minutes.

"How long will Altona have to wait for them?" said Cr. Shaw.

Council has been told the wellwisher will meet any cost involved in showing the pantomime. The film will be in the Civic Hall.

Farewell to clergyman

The Rev. P. B. Robson will conduct his farewell service at Altona Methodist Church on Sunday. After five years in Altona, Mr. Robson has been posted to Portland and will begin his ministry there next year.

Too late to be sorry

Saying "sorry sir" after using indecent language in a public place did not impress Mr. K. Thompson, S.M. in Williamstown Court.

Geoffrey Wayne Slee of 1 Mark Street, Altona, pleaded guilty before Mr. Thompson to a charge of using indecent language in a public place in Altona.

Senior Constable Ian Brown of Maidstone told the court he and another policeman were sitting in an unmarked police car in Pier Street, Altona, about 7 p.m. on November 16.

He said they were watching a group of youths in a nearby park.

Senior Constable Brown said he heard Slee use an indecent expression and immediately left the police car and went over to Slee and told him he did not like what he had heard.

"Slee replied, 'I'm sorry sir,'" Senior Constable Brown said.

He added, "There were a number of females in the park at the time and passing nearby doing their late-night shopping."

Mr. Thompson replied, "It was a bit late to say he was sorry!"

Slee did not give evidence and Mr. Thompson fined him $30 in default six days goal.

Are you speeding?

Stylish looking oversize tyres on a car can land motorists in court, warns the Olympic Tyre and Rubber Company.

Car speedometers are calibrated to wheel speed, based on the number of revolutions a tyre makes a minute.

Over-size tyres reduced the number of revolutions a minute that the tyre turns, which means that the car travels faster than the speedometer indicates.

In a controlled speed zone this discrepancy can be costly and embarrassing. Most car designers allow for a slight variation in tyre size, but motorists should never exceed the suggested tyre limitations.

Meeting

The next monthly meeting of the Western Suburbs Lapidary Club will be held at 8 p.m. on Thursday, December 13, at the Footscray Trugo Club, corner Buckley and Werner streets, Middle Footscray.

KELLY QUERIES SPEED PLANS

"The idea of lowering the speed limit by 10 miles an hour during the Christmas holidays is unscientific and based on supposition rather than fact, executive vice-president of the VACC, Mr. Athol Kelly, said yesterday.

He was commenting on recent suggestions that the road toll could be lowered by reducing speed limits for a trial period. Mr. Kelly said he agreed with the Premier, Mr. Hamer, that the present limits should remain. He added that the original idea of the 70 mph limit was to be a trial on the Hume Highway only, but the Government introduced it as a blanket limit. Before the limit was introduced motorists could do any speeds in restricted areas provided they could prove they were not driving dangerously. This often involved police in dangerous high-speed chases. Mr. Kelly added: "The present limit does not mean that all motorists must drive at 70 mph. There are plenty of places where 70 is far too fast and speeds must be adjusted to conditions rather than regulations".

Spotswood batsmen take honors

Spotswood Cricket Club batsmen smashed into the McKinnon bowling last Saturday to total 223 runs.

Kevin Lee made a great 54, supported by Richie Glazner with 39 — and a very hard hitting John Kerr, on 46. Ray Nichol once again proved his worth to the team with 37 not out.

In reply McKinnon could only manage 150 runs, John Kerr taking 4/23 and P. John 2/22.

Spotswood reserves made 140 and eight dec., for 127, but could not manage to dismiss McKinnon for outright victory.

McKinnon made 88 and were 6/135 at stumps.

Batting honors went to L. Morrison 22, P. Mifsud 26, and J. Barnett 39.

P. Mifsud cut through the McKinnon bats in both innings, taking 6/59 and 5/54.

Ian Jackson won the 400 metres in 52.7 sec. The under-17 team defeated Old Scotch, 66-61. John Steward won the 1500 metre walk in 7 m. 51.5 sec. Paul Jamieson won the 100 metres in 11.2 sec. Robert Hall won the 1500 metres in 4 m. 15.8 sec. and Steve Mullholland ran second in the time of 4 m. 21.9 sec.

50 'STIRRED' $150 FOR DAVID HOUSE

By John Dixon

About 50 of the western suburbs' most professional 'stirrers' who decided to cash in on their ability, to aid charity, have raised $154 in the last year for David House, Footscray.

The 50 are members of The Strand Hotel, Newport, S.S. Club. They presented the cheque at a social function at the hotel last Saturday night.

The presentation was made to the David House president, Mr. Roy Burandt by the retiring S.S. Club president, Mr. Chas Maugher.

The amount almost doubled that raised last year for David House — $85.

David House is a mentally retarded children's centre.

Mr. Burandt said the cheque proved again the willingness of the people of the western suburbs to assist the needy.

In the eastern suburbs it was frequently hard to find public financial support for charities, but in the west people came forward as volunteers to help the less fortunate, he said.

NEW CHIEF

Mr. Maugher handed over the chain of office, and medallion, of the president on Saturday night to the 1974 chief stirrer, Mr. Bill Willis.

The "medallion" is in the form of a paddle and the chain is the genuine loo variety — complete with handle.

The club began in 1968 when a group of regular drinkers and expert stirrers in the bottle shop corner of The Strand main bar known for their stirring ability, decided they should not waste their talents.

The suggestion was made by dynamic, if diminutive, Mr. Jim Howat and the permission of the licensee, Mr. Bert Caneva and a "medallion" bearing the suitable inscription, was presented to foundation president, Mr. Vic Dern.

AID-CHARITY

In 1971, Mr. Howat suggested charity could benefit from the stirring and a paid membership scheme was originated.

For 40 cents, members receive a pocket-sized paddle and they must produce this when challenged at the hotel by any club member, or donate 10 cents to the David House collection tin.

In the hotel lounge, where there are a few woman members, inflation takes over and the fine is 20 cents.

An honor board — also in the shape of a paddle — listing the names of past presidents hang in the S.S. corner of the bar... although 'past' is not always the correct term.

Charlie Maugher, for instance has been listed as "past President" since his election at the beginning of the year.

The S.S. Club is a separate identity to the Strand Hotel Social Club, which also works for charity and the organisations have an agreement not to impose on each other's territory except by special arrangement.

Northerners' first loss

Altona North suffered its first defeat this season on Saturday.

Richmond Union won by 89 runs on the first innings.

Scores: Richmond Union 193 and 4/77 (David Price 3/15) d. Altona North 104 (Reg Simpson 29, John Coffey 25, Max Outen 16).

Altona North second XI was defeated outright by North Carlton. Gary McCorkick was the only batsman to worry North Carlton. He scored 21 runs. The second XI side managed only 103 runs in two innings.

The third XI won by 25 runs on the first innings. At one stage, Southport trailed by only 35 runs with five wickets intact. Rev. McLaren 6/44 off 16 overs and John Thompson 3/48 bowled well. Altona North was 8/145 in its second innings. Darryl Outen 54, Mick Woods 24, Harold Mason 17, Peter Banks 14 n.o., Rev. McLaren 10 n.o. were the top batsmen.

The junior side humbled Williamstown CYMS. Altona North declared its first innings closed at 17/132, 74 runs in the lead. Ron Cassar top scored with 51 n.o. Others to bat well were Steven Burgess 50 n.o. and P. Swainger 19. Best bowlers were Harry Hart 6/23 and Ron Cassar 2/4.

Altona North narrowly avoided its first defeat this season after leading on the first innings. Niddrie fell short by only 20 runs.

Denise Colledge 73 n.o. and Sue Griffin 10 were top scorers in North's 155 runs first innings. Niddrie was dismissed for 85. Vikki Clark 8/32 and Sue Griffin 2/19 shared the wickets.

North declared at 4/31 in its second innings. Niddrie was 5/100 at stumps.

Coins go

Two coin collectors have had a total of $146 stolen from their collections by daylight house-breakers, on the same day.

They are Mr. Dale Sampson, civil engineer, of Wilkins Street, Newport and Mr. Martin Sobers, cleaner of Morris Street, Williamstown.

Both thefts last Thursday — the one in Newport between 8.20 a.m. and 6 p.m. and the Williamstown one between 8.10 a.m. and 7.15 p.m.

Mr. Sampson lost two shilling pieces worth $60; one one-shilling piece worth $40; a Captain Cook bi-centennial 50 cent coin worth $2; a New Zealand Commonwealth Games 50 cent piece worth $2 and about $2 in small change.

The thieves forced louvres on the bathroom window.

Mr. Sobers lost a collection of old shilling and 50 cent pieces worth about $40.

The coins were in a safety box in his bedroom at the flat where he lives.

The box was forced open but police found no sign of a forced entry into the flat.

Your help is needed

Western suburbs residents have been asked for support to board young Aboriginal apprentices.

The appeal is part of a program by the Rotary Club of Altona to train Aboriginal lads.

The youths will be from 16 to 18 years.

The club has made available positions in metal fabricating, fitting and turning, and welding at local engineering plants.

The Department of Labor is currently selecting candidates in country areas.

But the project will fail unless it is given local support. Suitable accommodation is a necessity.

The government training scheme provides for living away from home allowances, and therefore a reasonable boarding fee will be available.

People interested can contact Jim Mann at work on 314 6374, or Bob Beavis on 391 3706.

Pensioner threatened

PENSIONER Mrs. J. Newington, of Richards Street, answered the telephone at her home and a male voice warned: "You are going to be sexually assaulted". Mrs. Newington called her husband and the man said: "What's wrong with that wife of yours?" Mr. Newington said: "There's no need to be insulting, my friend" and the man replied, "I'm not your friend and hung up." The incident was reported to Williamstown police, who are investigating, as are PMG investigators.

Tent goes

A tent 15ft. x 15ft. has been stolen from a shop in Nelson Place. The shop is occupied by tent-maker, Mr. Harold Frederick. The tent was on the floor and was stolen about 6.30 p.m., while the shop door was closed but unlocked. It is worth $130.

From car

A wallet containing $28.70 and a silver watch worth $27 were stolen when thieves smashed a side window in a car parked in The Esplanade. The theft was between 12.15 and 3 p.m., from Mr. Gary Steal, student, of Melton.

Colt caps

Two hub caps worth $8 were stolen from a Colt 1100 car parked in Thompson Street last Friday. The thieves were disturbed by the car's owner, Mr. William Landy, boilermaker, about 10.15 p.m. but he failed to catch them or recover the caps. The car was parked outside his home, near the corner of Thompson Street and Nelson Place.

$80 cash

Thieves who broke into the Princess Street home of Mr. Arthur Gleeson, clerk, between 9 p.m. last Wednesday and 5 a.m. last Thursday, got away with $80 in cash and a key case containing three keys. They manipulated the latch on the back screen door and stole the money and keys from Mrs. Glee-son's handbag, which was in the lounge.

English bike

An English-built boy's cycle, belonging to Mrs. Mary Hernan, was stolen from outside a house in Verdon Street about 7.30 p.m. last Thursday. It is a 16 in. machine with red frame and wheels, and was used by Mrs. Hernan's son.

$300 mower

A motor mower worth $300 was stolen when thieves forced the garage door at a house in Osborne Street. Owner of the machine was Mr. Robert Gregson, who lives at the house. The theft was while he was at work.

WILLIAMSTOWN GAMBLE PAID OFF

A wicket keeper put Williamstown Cricket Club on the road to victory over the reigning premiers last Saturday.

His great effort was in FRONT of the stumps.

Tom Ferris was the surprise opener for Williamstown—but the faith coach Les Joslin had in him proved correct when he made 27 runs.

An unconquered 51 by Barry Hewet put the final nail in the coffin of the 72-73 Premiership side.

Openers Barry McConnell and Tom Ferris went along nicely for the best first-wicket partnership for two seasons before Barry went lbw to S. Hanlon for 17. Bert Park joined keeper Ferris and at the score of 64 Tom was caught by Geoff Anyon, the Waverley skipper after making a very handy 27 runs. Les Joslin joined Park, however, it wasn't long before Park was caught when 19 and Williamstown didn't look good 3/69 with 130 to get. Barry Hewet joined his skipper in what was to be a memorable innings. At the tea break the batsmen left the field with the score 3/91, still a long way to go. After the interval Les Joslin was out leg before to ex-Willy-ite Tom Seal for 23 and Williamstown were four down now and still requiring 100 runs to take the points.

DOUBTFUL

Robin Dyson was in and after two runs he was given out to what we would describe as a very doubtful catch, however the scoreboard now read 5/101.

Secretary-player Ian McLeod joined Barry and they really set the Williamstown fire as they battered the bowling; they put on 36 runs in very fast time. Barry hit a four to give them the 50 partnership and this batting performance made the fans sit up and take notice.

Briskly the runs came and now the Waverley fieldsman, were looking dejected.

Ian McLeod was run out when the score was 163, these two had rattled on 62 runs. McLeod had made 29.

John Fowler joined Barry and he was caught by Anyon after seven runs. Score now was 7/171 and still 28 to get.

Peter Bowyer came to the crease and there were now only nine overs to be bowled.

Willy fans were delighted to find that the scoreboard was wrong at this stage and that the tally was 178 (six runs more than expected).

Good running between wickets by Bowyer and Hewet pushed the score along to 194 before Bowyer was caught by Hynes.

Geoff Horsburgh joined Barry now and his back was still suspect, only five runs from victory. Williamstown fans were breathing a little easier at this stage.

BEAUTIFUL SHOT
Horsburgh didn't have to risk any pain and broke his duck with a beautiful boundary shot into the wind. Now was the shot we needed and it was the winning one, as Barry scored two runs to make the tally 200. Hors proved that he didn't want to run with another four. At the close of play the Seagulls were 8 for 208. The fifth win for the season.

SCORES:

Waverley 8 for 198.
Williamstown: Barry McConnell, lbw, b S. Hanlon, 17; Tom Ferris, c Naylor, b Marks, 27; Bert

Park, c T. Tanlon, b Marks, 19; Barry Hewet, n.o. 51; Les Joslin, lbw, b Seal, 23; Robin Dyson, c T. Hanlon, b Seal, 2; Ian McLeod, run out, 29; John Fowler, c Anyon, b S. Hanlon, 7; Peter Bowyer, c Hynes, b Gill, 7; Geoff Horsburgh, n.o. 9; Sundries 17; Total 8 for 208.

Seconds down in disappointing display.

Chasing 150 runs Williamstown resumed their overnight score of 0/9, but they never improved very much and apart from 22 by opener Kev Tweedley and 26 n.o. by John Becroft they failed to impress and were all out for a meagre 111 runs. Waverley batted for the second time and were 2/80 at the close of the game. Laurie Hewet and Graeme Dean taking the two wickets.

Scoreboard: Waverley 150 and 2/80. WILLIAMSTOWN: Philip McTaggart, lbw, 5; Kevin Tweedley, c, 22; Ron Shaw, b, 5; George Shaw, b, 13; Noel Macleod, c, 5; Graeme Dean, c, 8; John Becroft, n.o., 26; Trevor Smith, c, 3; Alan McLellan, b, 2; Jim Hallett, b, 15; Laurie Hewet, run out, 1; Sundries, 6; total, 111.

THIRDS WIN WELL
Resuming at 2/20, left-hander Andrew Davies put on a handy 69 runs before being dismissed, he and Garry Matty put on 61 runs. Peter Thatcher made 36 n.o. Matty went on to make 25. Grant Botica, 12 n.o. Bob Penrose with 10 and skipper Bob Ducrow with 10 adding up to a declared 5/170.

Port Fourths went in for a second time and were 6/66 at the close of play.

Bowling: Neil Speakman, 2/15 off six overs. Young 12-year-old Craig Young, 2/13 from four overs. Garry Richardson, 1/13. Bob Penrose, 1/10. Lou Dowling, 0/9 and Nev Speakman, 0/1 after one over.

Balwyn who have only suffered one defeat come to Williamstown next Saturday in the first day of the Christmas game. It should be a thrilling encounter. The Second Eleven journey to Balwyn Park and the thirds play Yarraville at the Barlow reserve, Roberts Street, Footscray, in the first day of a two-day game.

WELCOME

Ian McLeod is asking for lads under the age of 14 to come along and train at the Williamstown ground for the January 'Hatch Shield' competition.

It is a grand opportunity to come along and represent your city in turf cricket and it could be a grounding to a long and colorful cricketing career.

DOUBLE WICKET SUCCESS

Williamstown unearthed a star bat in footballer John "Jesse" James in the double wicket barbecue day at the Williamstown ground on Sunday last.

He and Bob Ducrow won the day from Footscray's all rounder John Sharp and a young up and comer Craig Young.

Young in his climb to runner up, with Sharp must have learned quite quickly and he had the scalp of his coach Les Joslin when he had him caught in the outfield.

In the winning combo, "Jesse" during his day of cricket fielded quite brilliantly, hit a six and two fours.

In the semi-finals Sharp and Young defeated Horsburgh and Noel Macleod. James-Ducrow beat McTaggart and Andrew Davies.

It was a great day of fun and cricket and credit goes to the ladies Mrs. Doris Shaw, Mesdames Dean and Richardson.

In the heat the umpires Brian Nichols and Bill McTaggart did a grand job.

Altona bowls form ends

Altona Bowling Club's A1 side failed to show its winning form in the second game of the second round last Saturday.

Ivanhoe emerged clear victors by 25 shots — 73 to 107.

Skip, T. Reid held 4 shots 21-17 and S. Carlton with T. Burke, G. Russell and J. Stephens returned 30-24.

Next weeks match against Northcote (the last for this year), is a vital for Altona.

The Div. 3 side playing away to ICI had a narrow victory by 8 shots 113-108.

ICI obviously have improved. A. Turner's rink held a good nine shot advantage, 30-21.

However, skipper A. Molloy with R. Watson, L. Thorncroft, and J. Rose, skinned the cream by joining the "Fourty club" 40-20.

This division 3 side is surely a contender for championship honors.

B5 playing at Strathmore defeated the home side by 35 shots, 109-74.

Skipper J. Carr with D. Nicholls, P. Kelly and T. Atkins had a fine 25 shot swin 38-13. R. Don and Kiwi Stephenson were 10 and 8 shots up respectively. Altogether a good performance by the selectors "orphans."

Results:

A1: S. Carlton (s), T. Burke, G. Russell, J. Stephens, 30-24; T. Reid (s), J. Fisher, H. Gibson, G. McNeilage, 21-17. L. F. Neilsen (s) L.

O'Donnell, A. Buterworth, L. Craig 19-22. I. Douglas (s), J. Newton, R. Douglas, S. Fell 9-42.

Div 3: A. Molloy 40-20; A. Turner 30-21, L. Cox 29-38, W. Condon 14-26.

B5: T. Carr 38-13; R. Don, 32-22. A. Stephenson 23-15; H. Blair 16-24.

JOYCE STARS

Altona Cricket Club star J. Joyce scored a brilliant 122 not out to give the team victory against Hakoah-Ajax last Saturday.

Altona were all out for 55 in the first innings, trailing H-A by 71 runs.

H-A declared on 7/90 in the second innings — but could not stop Joyce.

In an exciting finish Altona took the honors by seven runs, losing 9/165.

'KOHOUTEK' BECOMES TV STAR

The Christmas Comet Kohoutek is about to become a TV star. Cameras all over the world will be recording its progress and relaying to viewers where and when it has been sighted together with information scientists are hoping to learn such as whether the comet's frozen core contains material from the formation of a solar system. Full details appear this Thursday in "The Age" TV/Radio guide — your handy lift-out guide to all the week's radio and television.

"TV/Radio Guide" also includes a special four-page pre-Christmas Sound Scene supplement which offers advice on the latest hi-fi equipment for those people thinking of installing a sound system for Christmas.

The Guide publishes a statement by the Broadcasting Control Board or why experimental color broadcasts will not start in July. There's also the announcement of a new series of radio plays by Australian authors and details of the introduction of a new, weekly 90-minute program for teenagers — an in-concert TV series from America featuring leading pop groups.
